Sindicato Nacional Dos Aeronautas

On behalf of all pilots affiliated to APLA - Argentine Air Line Pilots Association, we stand in solidarity behind our Brazilian colleagues represented by SNA and endorse your endeavor to achieve fair professional working conditions.

Today, your struggle for a salary readjustment and improvement of working conditions reaches beyond frontiers and sets an example for thousands of aeronautical professionals in Latin America and all around the world.

With the strong conviction that unity and union active confrontation are the route to safeguard our profession, we condemn companies intransigence and offer our support to all of SNA pilots and cabin crew members.

In solidarity,

DANIEL BIANCO
